

Sustainable Shipping Awards 2010 Winners

An award recognizing the company or organization that has made the most significant contribution to the reduction and prevention of pollution of the ocean by ships. This covers areas such as oil spill prevention, ballast water treatment, and hull coatings.

Winner - International Tanker Owners Pollution Federation Limited (ITOPF)

Karen Parnell from ITOPF receives the award from Adam Dupre, Ocean Intelligence

Shortlisted Nominations

- Granelisa
- International Tanker Owners Pollution Federation Limited (ITOPF)
- Matson Navigation Company
- Mitsui OSK Lines

A special commendation was given to Granelisa for the Ocean Environmental Protection Award who were congratulated on the proactive actions that have been taken to implement an oil spill response plan for the Guatemalan region.

Anne-Marie Warris, Lloyd's Register presents Granelisa with a special commendation